Published by THE SENIOR CLASS
of
CHAPEL HILL HIGH SCHOOL
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

FOREWORD

In publishing this volume of the HILLIFE the senior class of 1937 has attempted to portray a true likeness of this high school. It is our hope that our efforts may not have been in vain and that those who have known and loved C. H. H. S. may find happy memories in the pages of this book.

Best wishes to one of the best Hi-J Friends!
Margaret McIver

DEDICATION

MISS MARGARET MCIVER

. . . whose loyal friendship and whose constant efforts in our behalf have made our high school days more enjoyable, we dedicate this volume of HILLIFE.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Flash! Flash! Flash! The latest news report of the day, brought to you through the courtesy of the Pullen Pickled Peppers Company, from station J-A-K-E T-H-E S-N-A-K-E.

Flash! Attention, all moochers! John Van Hecke has just opened a new branch of Moochers' Paradise. Two of his best customers are Marie McClelland and May Hampton Caldwell. Speaking of Miss Caldwell, I hope you men of the nation have learned not to argue with her—she's always Wright. As for Miss McClelland, she's always True—ex. Any college freshman.

Flash! Henry Barbour, Esq., got to work on time today. Says Mr. Barbour's boss, Mr. Sidney Barker, "The shock is too great. I am leaving at once for a long rest at Palm Beach." Mr. Barbour's secretary, Susan Barbee, gasped, "Wait until Ripley hears about this!" Said office boy F. M. Durham, "He's probably already got it if my wife, Lucile Griffin, has found it out."

Flash! Mr. and Mrs. Len Smithey (Margaret Lloyd) were seriously injured today when they attempted to hide from hitch-hikers Clifford Carroll, Claiborne Oakley, Sarah Nathan, and Edgar Stone in the basement of their trailer.

Flash! "Big Bill" Tilden, now playing professional tennis on crutches, has hired Arthur Melville Jordan, Jr., to chase balls for him.

Flash! Mary Kerr Farrell has just obtained a divorce from her fifteenth husband, David Sessoms. The divorce was granted by Justice Charles Phillips. Says Miss Farrell, "Davie was an awful dear, but lately my interests have turned to that charming diplomat, Brewster 'Shyster' Rogerson."

Flash! Three candidates have just been chosen to represent the United States in the world-wide competition "Do you have to have a Manicure or can you Bite your Own?" They are Rose Stacy, Julia Fussler, and Edna Bradshaw.

Nannie Bette Andrews

Home Economics Club, (2); Chorus, (2); Basketball, (1, 4); Dramatic Club, (3).

Nannie Bette has a classic profile and a dignified air, but don't let that deceive you into thinking she is cold and sedate. On the contrary, her merry nature and pleasant smile mark her as one of the most friendly girls in school.

Sidney Barker

Sports Club, (2, 3).

The way our fellow students flock to "silent Sydney's" car, one might think that he was a taxicab operator. Don't get the wrong impression, though. He hasn't started in business yet!

Romulus Best

Basketball, (1); Baseball, (2); Chorus, (2); Hi-Y, (1, 2, 3, 4).

Despite the many misfortunes which have followed him during his school career, Rom has always won out by doing his Best. C. H. H. S. will have lost a good sport when he graduates.

Edna Bradshaw

Basketball, (2, 3); Home Economics Club, (2); Sports Club, (3); Physical Education, (4).

Don't let Edna's lisping voice and dreamy gaze fool you! She possesses a truly remarkable talent—that of appearing wholly unconscious of anything one minute and answering intelligently one of Mr. Farrar's questions the next.

Clifford Carroll

Sports Club, (1, 2, 3, 4).

For some reason Clifford reminds us of the heroes of those hill-billy jokes. We don't know why unless it is his drawling voice and amiable, easy-going manner. At any rate we find him a very pleasant person to have around.

Henry Barbour

Central H. S., Porto Rico, (1, 2); Hi-Y, (3, 4); State High School Golf Tournament, (3, 4); Basketball, (4); Football, (4); Dramatic Club, (3, 4).

Isn't it amazing that someone who has acquired the nickname of "T-Bone" should come from such a romantic spot as Porto Rico? Anyway, we're glad he came, for Henry has a grand sense of humor.

Julia Beck

Julia is small and olive-skinned, with dusky black hair and eyes—in other words she has just the type of beauty that girls envy and boys adore. Her coquettish manner and lisping voice are added attractions.

Nat Birtchett

Nat is the musical celebrity of the class in that he has played over the radio. He plays the mandolin and the violin, and all of us old-timers remember how he used to entertain us by bringing his harmonica to school and playing for us.

May Hampton Caldwell

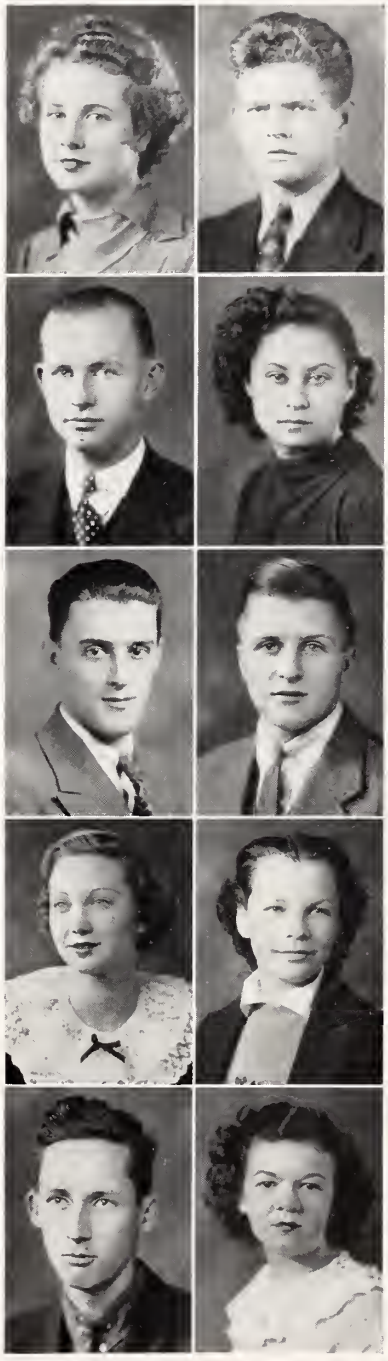

President Freshman Class; Home Economics Club, (2); Chorus, (1, 2, 3, 4); Hi-Y, (2, 3, 4); Treasurer, (2); Proconian, (2); Junior-Senior Entertainment Committee; Junior Ring Committee; Junior Marshal; Hillife, (4); Treasurer Senior Class.

Hamp has everything—good looks and a sweet disposition—to make her the most popular girl in the senior class.

Jean Conner

Dramatic Club, (2); Chorus, (3, 4); Hi-Y, (3, 4).

Jean has been an outstanding member of the class ever since the days when she and her sisters used to harmonize for us in assembly. We find her pug nose and infectious giggle very attractive.

Evelyn Crawford

Basketball, (1, 2, 3, 4); Basketball Club, (2); Sports Club, (3); Junior Marshal; Dramatic Club, (3, 4); Chorus, (4); Hi-Y.

We have never seen anyone so persistently cheerful, even at the worst moments, as Evelyn is. Her brown eyes sparkling, her mouth curved in a generous smile, she unconsciously brightens up the whole school.

F. M. Durham, Jr.

Vice-President Freshman Class; Secretary - Treasurer Sophomore Class; Dramatic Club, (4); Hi-Y, (4); Junior Marshal; Basketball, (4); Football, (4); Boxing, (3); Sports Club, (3); Aviation Club, (2).

F. M.'s trim personal appearance, ever-present cheerfulness, and grand smile make him practically irresistible.

Mary Kerr Farrell

Chorus, (1, 2, 3, 4); Secretary, (4); Basketball Club, (2); Operetta, (2); Physical Education, (4).

What a contagious laugh Mary has! Especially on French class. She never fails to laugh at Mr. Giduz's worst puns. Maybe that's why they get along so famously. And if you haven't heard her "tickle the ivories" into playing St. Louis Blues, you've missed something.

Sarah Fore

Chorus, (1, 2, 3, 4); Hi-Y, (3, 4); Proconian, (3); Secretary Dramatic Club, (4); Secretary Senior Class; Art Club, (4); Hillife, (4).

Behind Sarah's demure, sweet face there must be an illimitable supply of brain-matter. Without seeming to let it worry her at all she manages to knock down a steady stream of A's on all her studies.

Frances Lucile Griffin

Central H. S., Washington, D. C., (1, 2, 3); Dramatic Club, (4); Hi-Y, (4); Chorus, (4).

Lucile has a very engaging smile, a perfect nose, and an accent. In addition, she possesses an individuality which makes her very attractive to us all. With her long, slender hands and air of poise, she ought to be concert pianist.

Betty Durham

Chorus, (1, 2, 3); Home Economics Club, (2); Physical Education, (4).

Why can't we all be a little more like Betty? Her inexhaustible source of good-natured laughter makes her a valuable and pleasant person to have around (especially when you have just cracked a very sour joke and need somebody to take pity and laugh at it).

Josephine Eldridge

Dramatic Club, (1); Chorus, (2, 3, 4); Hi-Y, (4); Operetta, (2); Hillife, (4).

Josephine is beautiful and blonde, but no one could classify her as dumb. She is characterized by her fun-loving disposition, good grades, and pleasant manner.

Geddie Fields

Sports Club, (2, 3); Chorus, (2, 4); Model Airplane Club, (2).

Geddie must have a real affection for C. H. H. S. During his four years of high school he has not been tardy or absent a single time! We will miss him for his cheerful friendliness.

Julia Fussler

Chorus, (1, 2, 3, 4); Hi-Y, (2, 3, 4); Physical Education, (4).

Julia's friendly disposition and her ability to play the violin make her a welcome addition to any gathering. Anyone who can laugh as much as she does, even at our weakest puns, deserves a medal of honor.

Okalee Hollifield

Harris H. S., (1, 2, 3); Physical Education, (4); Art Club, (4).

Okalee comes from the mountains, but she emphatically denies that she is a hillbilly. Although she is a newcomer her friendliness and adaptability have made her seem like one of us.

Bob House, Jr.

Hi-Y, (1, 2, 3, 4); Hillife, (4).

Ever since Bobby blossomed out in that purple corduroy—green sweater—yellow tie—blue suspenders combination early in his high school career, he has continued to be one of the most colorful personalities in the senior class.

Ellen Hudson

Secretary Freshman Class; Home Economics Club, (2); President Sophomore Class; Library Club, (2); Hi-Y, (2, 3, 4); President, (2); Junior Ring Committee; First Prize Poetry Contest, (3); Proconian, (1, 4); Hillife, (4).

Ellen's ability to be interestingly serious or charmingly gay have brought her popularity with everyone.

Ruth Lindsay

Home Economics Club, (2).

Ruth's patience and never-failing good nature are traits we will long remember. She is a good listener, too, one of those nearly extinct types of people. We hope the world does right by Ruth.

Henrietta Logan

Hannah More Academy, (1); Hi-Y, (2, 3, 4); Library Club, (2); Home Economics Club, (2).

Beneath Henrietta's calm exterior lies the temperament of an artistic genius. Although we considered her somewhat lazy, she assures us that this is a mistake. She is simply uninterested in the more trivial things of life (like studying!).

Wilma Merritt

Home Economics Club, (1); Physical Education, (1).

We envy Wilma for her naturally curly hair and for the certain something about her face that has always attracted us so—whether it is her blue eyes, or her turned-up nose, or her sweet mouth, we don't know, but it's there. Her husky voice would make her an ideal blues singer, too.

Rachel Howard

Chorus, (1); Dramatic Club (1, 2); Secretary, (2); Proconian, (3); Hi-Y, (2, 3, 4); Vice-President, (2).

Rachel, with her sparkling brown eyes and ready smile, is the personification of gaiety. C. H. H. S. will miss her animated and vivacious ways.

Melville Jordan, Jr.

Hi-Y, (1, 2, 3, 4); Vice-President N. C. and S. C. Conference, (4); Basketball, (1, 3, 4); Football, (2, 3, 4); Captain, (3); Tennis, (1, 2, 3, 4); State Singles Championship, (3); Student Council, (2); Winner in Class B Trumpet Contest, (3); Proconian, (1, 2, 3, 4); Dramatic Club, (1, 2, 3, 4); President, (4); Hillife, (1, 3, 4); Editor, (4).

Enough said!

Margaret Lloyd

Basketball, (1, 2, 3, 4); Chorus, (1, 2, 3, 4); Home Economics, (3); Physical Education, (4); Hi-Y, (4).

Margaret has been very consistent in her activities. Her excellent playing in basketball and her beautiful soprano voice in the chorus will be remembered for a long time.

Marie McClelland

South Side H. S., Rockville Centre, N. Y., (1); Hi-Y, (3, 4); Chorus, (2, 3, 4); Treasurer, (4); Treasurer Sophomore Class; President Junior Class; Proconian, (3, 4); Hillife, (3, 4); Tennis, (3, 4).

With her charming smile and Yankee accent, Marie has been a popular and outstanding member of the class.

George Meyer

Basketball, (2, 3); Hi-Y, (1, 2, 3, 4); Secretary, (1); President, (2, 3, 4).

Looking at that list, one is prone to wonder just what the Hi-Y would have done without George these past three years. They intrusted an important undertaking to someone very capable of handling it, however.

Margaret Morrison

Chorus, (3, 4); Proconian, (4); Homeroom Treasurer, (4); Hi-Y, (3, 4).

Margaret has an interesting personality and a lovely voice. We are all looking forward to the day when she will be a great opera star. And you should hear her sing in German, Wie gehtes, Fraulein?

Jennie Wells Newsome

Needham Broughton H. S., (1, 2); Hi-Y, (3, 4); President, (4); Secretary State Hi-Y, (4); Red Cross Council, (3); Proconian, (3); Junior-Senior Entertainment Committee; President Senior Class; Hillife, (3, 4), Managing Editor, (4).

It's impossible to say enough to do justice to our lovely class president.

Dorothy Page

Vice-President Sophomore Class; Home Economics Club, (2); Hi-Y, (2, 3, 4); Proconian, (3); Vice-President Homeroom, (4); Junior Ring Committee.

Very small and dainty and lovely, Dot will be remembered by all of us as the personification of that feminine charm we hear so much about in the South.

Ada Mae Perry

Chorus, (1); Home Economics Club, (2, 3).

Ada has the enviable ability to look neat and cool under any circumstances. Do we ever see her with her nose unpowdered or her hair mussed up? Never! She even seems as fresh after tests as she was before. Whew!

Charles Phillips

Greensboro H. S., (1, 2, 3); Dramatic Club, (4); Chorus, (4); Football, (4); Basketball, (4); Hi-Y, (4).

Charles is long and lanky and lazy, the kind of boy who can come to C. H. H. S. fresh from another city and yet be one of us within a week. His cheerful, easy-going good nature has made him friends everywhere.

Sarah Jeannette Nathan

Basketball, (1, 2); Science Club, (2); Treasurer Home Economics Club, (2); Library Club, (2); Hi-Y, (3, 4); Vice-President, (4); Junior-Senior Entertainment Committee, (3); Chairman Red Cross Council, (3); Hillife, (4); Proconian, (4).

Sarah is the original "willing worker." It's been nice having someone to rely on to do the dirty work!

Claiborne Oakley

Student Council, (2); Secretary-Treasurer Junior Class; Hi-Y Club, (2).

Claiborne is a good fellow and an energetic and hard worker—the kind that inspires awe in the hearts of the lazy. He also inspires liking, as evidenced by his popularity.

Margaret Perkins

Physical Education, (1); Home Economics Club, (3).

Margaret's enormous brown eyes are the first things that attract your attention. After that you notice her black hair, which is straight (and quite a relief in this world of frizzy permanent waves). Her quiet ways, too, are restful to ears accustomed to the noise of three hundred other students.

P. R. Perry

Model Airplane Club, (2); Stamp Club, (2); Sports Club, (3); Hi-Y, (2, 3, 4); Basketball, (2, 3, 4); Football, (3, 4); Tennis, (3); Chorus, (4).

P. R. has done outstanding work in basketball, football, and tennis, besides taking part in many other activities. You can rely on him to add interest to any gathering.

Billy Pullen

Student Council, (2); Stamp Club, (2); Sports Club, (2, 3).

Billy, with his broad smile and cheerful disposition, is a bright spot on the school landscape. We don't know what his ambitions are, but we prophesy that his skill in performing magic will make him a second Houdini.

Brewster Rogerson

Proconian, (2, 3, 4), Business Manager, (3), Editor, (4); Hi-Y, (2, 3, 4); Second Prize Poetry Contest, (3); Hillife, (3, 4).

Some day we of the senior class will all be exclaiming that we "knew Brewster when." With his ingenuity, talent, and "little gray cells," he will surely be famous.

David Sessoms, Jr.

Tennis, (2); State Make-Up Contest, (2); Dramatic Club, (1, 2, 3, 4); Publicity Manager, (1, 2, 3, 4); Hi-Y, (2, 3, 4).

David is quite a live wire in school. (If you don't believe it, ask Mr. Templeton or History II class.) His interest and continual activity in dramatics have brought him considerable recognition.

Len Smithey

Football, (2, 3); Dramatic Club, (2, 3); Boxing, (2, 3); Vice-President Senior Class.

Len is a good athlete and student. His calm, business-like attitude often makes us feel rather childish, like foolish puppies in the presence of a wise, sedate old watch dog.

Rose Stacy

Wilkesboro H. S., (1); Home Economics Club, (1, 2); Dramatic Club, (3, 4); President, (4); Physical Education, (4); Basketball, (2, 3, 4); Manager Team, (4); Soccer, (4); Hi-Y, (4).

Rose is the "bubble-y," good-natured sort of person who seems to get into everything and make you glad she's there. C. H. H. S. will miss her infectious laughter.

Frances Scott Tilley

Elkin H. S., (1, 2, 3); Hi-Y, (4); Basketball, (4); Dramatic Club, (4).

Frances hasn't been here very long, but she's made a good impression on us. A willing worker with a sweet disposition (as well as a pretty face). She has had no trouble in becoming one of us.

Alex Sessoms

Football, (2, 3, 4); Dramatic Club, (2, 4); Hi-Y, (2, 3, 4).

Even if for no other reason, the inmates of C. H. H. S. should esteem Alex for his patience and forbearance as supervisor of fourth period study hall. It is really marvelous the almost maternal indulgence he shows for his "playful" charges.

Wescott Smith, Jr.

Football, (1, 2, 4); Basketball, (2, 3); Baseball, (1); Boxing, (3); President Sports Club, (2); Chorus, (1, 2, 4); Hi-Y, (4); Hillife, (4); Dramatic Club, (4).

That Junior is a very versatile person is shown by his list of activities. He has been a valuable asset in the field of sports.

Louise Sparrow

Chorus, (1, 4); Basketball, (1, 2); Basketball Club, (2); Hi-Y, (4); Operetta, (4); Physical Education, (4).

Louise's happy disposition and her ability to laugh or sympathize, as the case may be, have won her many friends. If we could all be as cheerful as she after history tests, we'd spend fewer unhappy hours.

Edwin Tankersley

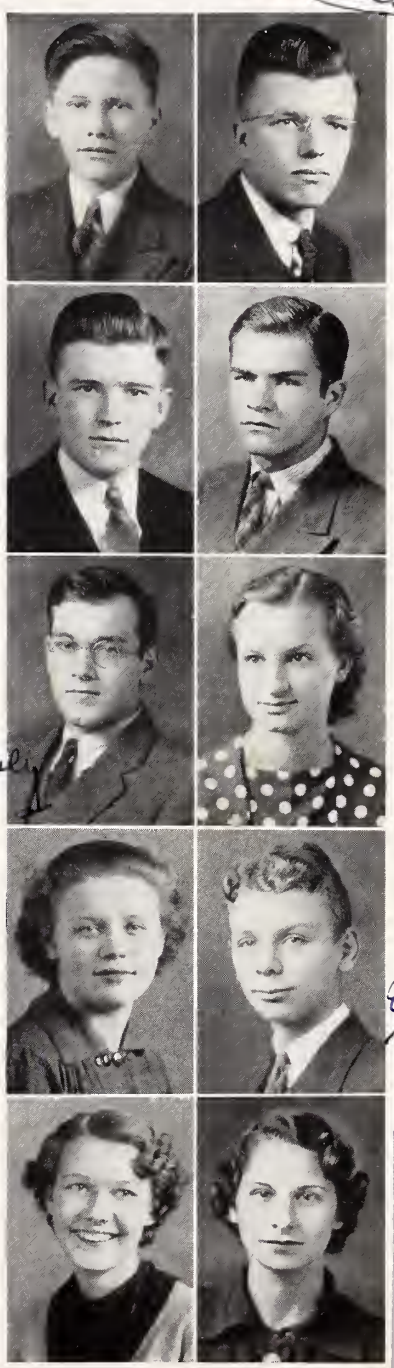

Hi-Y, (1, 2, 3, 4); Aviation Club, (2); Sports Club, (3); Chorus, (4); Football, (3, 4); Basketball, (2, 3, 4).

Three cheers for a swell sport! Edwin is one of Chapel Hill High's star basketball players. And do the ladies prefer blondes? You bet they like this one!

Thelma Trotter

Basketball, (1, 2, 3); Home Economics Club, (3); Secretary-Treasurer Sports Club, (3, 4); Physical Education, (4); Hi-Y, (4).

Ever since people have found out what a good listener Thelma is, she has seldom been given a chance to say very much. When she does talk though, we are charmed by her lovely, soft voice.

John Van Hecke

Hi-Y, (1, 2, 3, 4); Proconian, (3, 4); Hillife, (4); Assistant Manager Tennis Team, (3); Manager, (4); Chorus, (4).

"Brother Van" claims that he has received his nick-name falsely. But he is a very good sport about it, and consequently we all like him.

Anna Belle White

Chorus, (1, 2, 3, 4); Library Club, (1, 2, 4); Secretary Hi-Y, (3, 4).

Anna Belle, with her soft voice and gentle air, is a true example of Southern charm. She has also perfected the technique of acting attentive and quietly during classes, but we frequently suspect that her mind is far away.

Faucette Williams

Home Economics Club, (2); Chorus, (2, 3).

Faucette has lovely red hair but lacks the proverbial high temper that accompanies it. She is one of the jolliest, most amiable girls in the class, and when she smiles you feel as though you were receiving a real treat.

Wescott Woollen

Woodberry Forest, (3); Chorus, (4); Football, (4); Dramatic Club, (4); Hillife, (4).

"Week" is one of our sheep who has returned to the fold. None of us can deny that his presence adds something to the school, or that we will miss him when he is gone.

Latane Wright

Dramatic Club, (1, 2, 3); Hillife, (4); Hi-Y, (4).

Latane's attractiveness, especially her lovely eyes, has won her as much renown as her excellent work in all her classes. She is one of our most brilliant and interesting classmates.

Flash! The internationally known college widow, Dorothy Page, taking up the bet of your correspondent, hooked Dean Robert Burton House, Jr., the man who never looked at a woman before.

Flash! Playboy Alex Sessoms left for Egypt late this afternoon. Says Mr. Sessoms. "Chorus girls Margaret Morrison, Ada Mae Perry, Ruth Lindsay, Henrietta Logan, and Sarah Fore are getting too expensive. I think I'll try a harem."

Flash! Famous designer Junior Smith has designed a new baby carriage. Says Mrs. Smith (Frances Clark), "I don't see why he designed a carriage—what we need is truck."

These latest news reports have been broadcast through the courtesy of Pullen Pickled Peppers Company. "Peter Piper may have picked a peck of pickled peppers, but Peter Piper prefers to pick a peck of Pullen's prize predominating, patented, paprika, pleasantly peeled pickled peppers."

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

"Miss Stacy, I have been sent to interview you on the unique history you wrote for your high school class."

"All right. What is it that you want to know?"

"My paper wants an informal comment on some of the more important incidents in your school career, such as the operetta the school gave in your freshman year."

"Oh, Miss Cherryblossom was directed by Miss Honeycutt, and some of the class took part in it."

"You mentioned Dr. George Howard and the demerit system."

"Yes. Dr. Howard instituted a demerit system and student government when he became principal in our sophomore year. We did our part in working off demerits!"

"What about your class presidents? You named May Hampton Caldwell, Ellen Hudson, Marie McClelland, and Jennie Wells Newsome as successive presidents. Have you any comment on them?"

Only that the job was just an honor until the senior year, and then what a lot of work to be done!"

"Did your class give any parties or banquets?"

"Well, our class gave the regular Junior-Senior affair in 1936. And then in our senior year, the P. T. A. was led by Mrs. Jensen in three all-school parties. They were our best effort for school spirit. Oh, yes—we inaugurated a School Fair in our last year; it will be given every year in the future."

"You say that the chorus won state honors when your class was in its sophomore and junior years."

"Our glee club was dominated by members of our class—it went twice to Greensboro and carried off high honors."

"I see. Well, your history states that the 1937 class was the first to graduate from the new high school. Besides that, is there anything else you want to give a statement on?"

"Why, of course!—Sports! We had "Sonny" Jordan to capture the state tennis championship in singles, and our other sports were led by members of the class: Tankersley, Meyer, and Perry. Our teams made good records in their class every year."

"Miss Stacy, have you anything else to say to the newspaper or to the public?"

"No, I think not. We've covered most of the important events that I mentioned in the history."

"Very well, and thank you. I'll be at the C. H. H. S. '37 graduating exercises to hear your history read!"

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1937

We, the Senior Class of the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, having spent the last four (or five) years within the walls of Chapel Hill High School, and therefore being mentally sound and ready for freedom, do hereby give and bequeath all our possessions to those who we think need them most.

Item One: Jennie Wells Newsome wills her splendid leadership ability to Reynolds Privette, hoping that some day he will be able to use it.

Item Two: Nannie Bett Andrews leaves her curly, golden hair to Betty Hearn.

Item Three: To Frances Head Dorothy Page wills her flirtatious and gold-digging manner.

Item Four: George Meyer and Bob House both, after much hesitation, leave their supply of gaudy socks and shirts to whoever in the Freshman Class wants them and dares to wear them.

Item Five: Henry Barbour, otherwise "T-Bone," wills his habit of being tardy four days out of a week to Reid Cheek.

Item Six: To Sarah Umstead Edna Bradshaw leaves her vamping methods so that she may use them on Leif Jensen.

Item Seven: Latane Wright bequeaths her brains to be equally scattered over the heads of the Freshmen.

Item Eight: Ellen Hudson leaves her dignity and quiet manner to Molly Holmes.

Item Nine: To Loren MacKinney Rose Stacy leaves her title of Class Baby.

Item Ten: Nat Birtchett wills to Leif Jensen his ability to play the harmonica.

Item Eleven: Brewster Rogerson wills the Proconian Room to the next Editor, in the hope that he can keep out Mary Stanley Bernard and the other loafers.

Item Twelve: In sincere respect and sympathy the class of '37 leaves to the upcoming Senior Class the new high school building, to be treated with dignity and respect.

Item Thirteen: To all the teachers we leave the undying respect and hearty good will of the class of 1937 in token of our gratitude for what they have done in moulding, shaping, and making us what we are.

PROCONIAN

VOLUME EIGHT | CHAPEL HILL, N. C., MAY 1, 1937 | NUMBER TWENTY-FIVE

HISTORY OF "PROCONIAN"

COVERS SEVEN YEARS IN C.H.H.S.

The Proconian, originally written and published by the debating club, was first edited by Herman Fussler in 1930. Its aim, represented by the title (Pro for, and con against), has been, through its seven years of reporting school news, to print both sides of important school questions impartially. Student-written editorials have always been welcomed by the editors.

After Herman Fussler, Dick Dashiell, Billy Hudson, and Ned Hamilton were heads of the staff, in 1935 "Sonny" Jordan, Charles Giduz, Brewster Rogerson, and Thomas McIntosh all acted editors during parts of the year.

Through its existence the Proconian has shown a trend toward emphasis of feature material. The tendency is marked in this year's volume of the paper. The ultimate goal of the staff is to be able to print the Proconian, and build up a reserve fund for future years.

Although ineligibilities and injuries hit the gridiron team hard, Coach Nettles brought the squad, which had dwindled to 13 by the end of the season, through with only one loss. The highlight of the season came when, in the Oxford game, T. C. Farrell caught a 15 yard pass and raced 65 yards for a touchdown. Other highlights were the night game at Winston-Salem and Jordan's last minute field goal at Hillsboro.

RESUME OF BASKETBALL SEASON

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Under the supervision of their new coach this year the girls started an intramural program in the high school. They competed against several neighboring teams however, and even if they did not have a winning team they were very good sports.

SCHEDULE

Bethel Hill 11	Chapel Hill 8
Hillsboro 26	Chapel Hill 0
Bethel Hill 29	Chapel Hill 3
Town Girls 28	Chapel Hill 7

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The boys' basketball team started off with a bang winning two conference games from Bethel Hill 36-16, 21-14. Then through ineligibilities four first string men were lost from the squad. Lafayette then won 39-17 in a district championship game over Chapel Hill. Despite this set-back Coach Nettles saw his boys finish up strong with victories over Hillsboro, Roxboro, and other neighboring teams.

SCHEDULE

Durham 38	Chapel Hill 12
Bethel Hill 16	Chapel Hill 36
Bethel Hill 14	Chapel Hill 21
Lafayette 39	Chapel Hill 17
Roxboro 21	Chapel Hill 19

What's like about you Jennie is that you're one of those self-made girls. You started out as a little insignificant brat and brought out all your good qualities into the open. That's reason number one why people & especially I like you ——— Mac ———

You're a swell guy — I course (?) I enjoyed my date with you very much!!!!!
I hope you keep improving as much as you have in the passed few years — Multiply what every body else says about you and it still won't be swell enough
Dave!!

Jennie, we never formed that "mutual admiration society" we were talking about, but I still think it's a good idea. You're one of the loveliest girls I know, & I've enjoyed playing with you this year. What are you going to do without me to guide you in the matter of Swain Hall closets?

Zelker

If I were original I could say plenty about you, but since I'm not all I can say is that I think you are swell.

Dear Jennie,

It's costly to punish you. I don't know why but it is. I won't make a big speech because this is not my last moment with you (I hope). I love real enjoyment when you are around. You are what you am and that's all you am. That's enough. I could keep on and on, and I shall.

Now I think of sumpin. I act a little griped now and then and its terrible. Somehow since I've known you, the things in life seem brighter.

I haven't a chance but, as usual, still keep one step behind, fighting. You deserve the best. (two bits says you do get them) I've tried to be nice, I've tried, ~~you~~ you know how hard too, and the test is over. Results:

Favorable and then some.

you're "swell"

- Warren Mengel

June 1, 1937

Dear Jennie,

d'm not going to write anything too sentimental because everybody reads this. You and d sorta started out together in our junior year and we had many wonderful experiences. One of the greatest experiences was from 1936 fall to spring 1937 when d sorta went ga-ga over you (did d say d wasn't going to get sentimental). Anyway my only regret is that you changed your opinion of me. All these people who say you've improved are crazy! You have been wonderful all the time. d'm the next few years when you are in the whirl of college life, please don't forget our friendship which d hope will be everlasting. You've got a host of friends + admirers and d am one of the most ardent. You're just "it"; Yours truly, Love + kisses,

Melville "Sonny" Jordan

(5) since 2've known you 2 seem to feel much bigger — think of "Tommy" & having a date with the Pres. & Dr. Class & Xi-y and many others which would fill this whole page and still more-and beginning being a "good friend") for us - then (?) do you think you wrote is my talk about when 2'm in Durham-Just to forget you'll come here - 2 thinks it will be the other way around — when 2 have been gone about a month or so - You'll, you mo well completely forget about "dear me" (?) and leave me to struggle alone in Durham - Here's hoping you want !! Because it would be very hard for me to get along without your "nice" compliments —

Don't forget me

It has been a pleasure to know you,

Jennie Wells,

Since you have been in Chapel Hill you have made many friends and I hope that I am one of them. I have enjoyed our good times together (if there has been any). I hope you won't forget our school days. Good luck (as if you will need it) and heaps of wishes.

Although I haven't been here long, you have been very good to me and I'll never forget it.

Dear Jennie,

Jennie,
It seems that indiscretion
is one of my "best" traits.
You'll remember that last note was rather mushy (sec '36 annual)
But in case that gave the wrong idea, and to say I couldn't help it would be rather a poor excuse, I will correct your impression by saying that if it offended you I'm sorry as people sometimes are offended if I'm a little too "frank". Don't worry about it too much but I'm rather helpless, don't You can count me one of your most enthusiastic admirers and you will be one of the people whom
I will always remember from my days here in Gtwn.
I really can't say enough in your favor. I'm quite gone on the subject of you tho' I remain rather reserved on the subject.
Thanks for the memories.

Dear Jennie,

I hope you won't "bore me down" as Margaret would say, but anyhow it seems as tho everytime I ever go over to your house or am with you anywhere I always have the best times there. Somehow I always have felt as tho you thought I was a brat, and then when I start talking with you I feel swell. Well I'll have to stop that sentamental stuff and tell you that you're one of the swellest girls I ever knew and that you are (rite-rough).

Sonny Kenfield

From Raleigh back in '34
Came J. Newsome to relieve the bore,
Within a week with a ring that was loud
She fell right in with the CH crowd.
She started activities and that sort of stuff
And also it looked like she fell in love (lousy rhyme)
Every month you pull in an A+,
And you learned to drive your gitney, or bus,
And summing it up, I think, - o' well -
I honestly mean it - tee. but you're SWELL!!!

Just so Tommy won't have anything on me, I'm going to write twice. This is going to be sentimental. Since you read what I said, I guess you know how I feel. I had an awful I.F.C. before I started dating you. I guess I'm a person. I wish I could be an animal. I've enjoyed knowing you and your family. I've had three (EXCellant) dates avec vous.
